Reconnect in the paradise of the Maldives

The Maldives comprises of 1,190 private islands surrounded by exquisite coral reefs and rich exotic marine life. Powder-white sandy beaches, calm lagoons and privacy have attracted travellers for decades. Indulge in the ultimate relaxation spot and explore your Maldives retreat.

Explore the majestic Maldives from December to April where this beautiful part of the world boasts little to no rain, low humidity and blue skies.

Magic in Mauritius

The island paradise of Mauritius is rich in luscious greenery, luxurious beachside resorts and boasts an electric capital, Port Louis. Get your adrenalin fix with fantastic water sports or perhaps a hike through the hills. Why not experience the vibrant wildlife? Or you could always unwind by the glistening ocean.

This beautiful tropical climate is best to enjoy between the months of May and December when the weather is dry, sunny and balmy.

Dazzling Dubai

The gem of the UAE, Dubai, is the epitome of luxury, innovation and splendour. Home to the tallest building, largest shopping mall and the first seven-star hotel in the world and not forgetting the famous palm-shaped islands. The opportunities for exploration are endless and inspiring.

Head to Dubai between February and April to enjoy the hot weather without being too uncomfortable. Temperatures rarely reach below 25 degrees which is great for exploring the city!

Nature's Finest in South Africa

Immerse yourself in nature on a wildlife safari, explore history and culture in Johannesburg and Cape Town or relax by the picture-perfect beaches. South Africa is an explorers playground full of diverse and magical experiences that are guaranteed to make life-long memories.

The summer months between July and November are beautiful, hot and dry. Northern regions can be rainy from November to February but this is the best time for birding. May to September bring superb conditions for viewing big game.

Discover your Caribbean paradise

The luxury of the Caribbean cannot be described, only experienced. Lush islands with world-famous landscapes like St Lucia and Antigua await you here with over 300 beaches to choose from. The Caribbean is the epitome of luxury relaxation.

The best time to visit the Caribbean is generally December to April when the weather is drier, cooler and less humid. Gorgeous temperatures here stay between 24 and 29 degrees year round.

Feel the magic of Malaysia

Powder white beaches, exotic rainforests and a rich variety of wildlife are all characteristics of Malaysia. This Southeast Asian country encompasses a mix of Malay, Chinese, Indian and European cultural influences all of which are apparent in the colonial buildings and busy shopping districts.

The driest time to visit Malaysia is around January and February, the East Coast has a diverse climate with two clear seasons with the best time to visit here being April to October.

Vibrant variety in the Rocky Mountains

North America is the ultimate winter sports dream. Lush landscapes and epic scenery make the perfect backdrop for all kind of winter themed thrills. Reconnect with the natural world and embrace fun, vitality and purity on the slopes of the Rocky Mountains.

The best time to indulge in winter sports here is from the middle of November through to the middle of April when there is an abundance of snow and prime weather conditions for skiing.

The Galapagos Islands, a melting pot of natural wonder

The Galapagos Islands have an indescribable magic. The sheer variety of animals here is truly remarkable acting as a living museum of natural wonders. Visit Española Island to see land birds building their nests and marine iguana displaying their beautiful colours, maybe you'll be lucky enough to see the sea turtles laying their eggs on shore. A truly majestic experience.

January is the beginning of the rainy season in the Galápagos, with both water and air temperatures rising and staying warm until June- ideal for snorkelling and admiring the local wildlife! between 24 and 29 degrees year round.

Beauty on our doorstep

Europe's finest gems are on our doorstep and just a short flight away. Our European neighbours have so much to share and something to suit every taste. Captivating cultures, tempting dishes and fascinating history just waiting to be explored.

May, September and October are known as shoulder season which can be the best time to visit for many. Crowds are smaller and the weather is milder but if you're looking for a heat wave visit Europe between June and August.

A myriad of adventures in Hawaii

When you imagine Hawaii, paradise comes to mind. Soft sands, glistening oceans and sun-kissed landscapes. There is so much to explore here both in-land and offshore with a number of water sports and guided tours available. Whale watching, outdoor adventures, serenity and beauty- Hawaii has it all!

Hawaii's dry season falls from April to October while the wet season occurs from November to March. Summer here is very hot and humid so avoid peak season if you prefer a slightly cooler more comfortable climate.

Enchanting Thailand

Thailand is an enchanting destination perfect for a multi-centre holiday. Delve into the cities of Bangkok and Chiang Mai, unwind on the stunning beaches of Phuket and take in the stunning natural surroundings. Authentic cuisine and enlightening cultural experiences make this a brilliant holiday for families and couples alike.

Although the climate varies throughout Thailand, you can visit all year round. The best time to travel is during the cool and dry season between November and early April.
